Re: Witkin v. Witkin-Marcus
Case No. 08 Civ. 1207 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

At the conference in the above-referenced action on August 8, 2008, Your Honor directed me to submit a letter responding to the assertion by John Cahill, Esq., counsel for plaintiff (Nadine Witkin) in this action, that Robert Gaskill, Esq., counsel for defendant (Tamari Witkin-Marcus) in the New Jersey proceedings, has failed to respond to Mr. Cahill's communications to him. Attached is a letter from Mr. Gaskill to me setting forth his response.

Respectfully,

Robert Fryd

Mr. Cahill is directed to respond to the letter of August 13 of Mr. Gaskill (particularly the last two paragraphs m.p. 2.) If Mr. Cahill believes he was "misunderstood" then he should promptly call Mr. Gaskill to iron matters out. If Mr. Gaskill is correct, Mr. Cahill's statements made by Mr. Cahill to me, Settlements now, at times, breakdown over substance. This one appears to have failed because of poor communications between opposing counsel.
